

Rector's Directive No. 2/2018

- Using the outcomes from the creative work of a third party

I hereby issue the following directive including the regulation of the means by which the creative work of a third party is used at the University of Jan Amos Komenský Prague s.r.o. (hereinafter referred to as "UJAK"), namely copyright, as well as other rights applicable to an intellectual work.

1. The responsibilities of employees and students at UJAK in terms of the protection and enforcement of copyright are as follows:
 - a. When using any works (e.g. literary, audio, audiovisual, etc.) and when using them in class and in any other activity as part of working for UJAK, every employee and student at UJAK is required to thoroughly abide by the legislation concerning the use of these works, especially Act No. 121/2000 Coll on Copyright, on Rights Associated with Copyright and on the Amendment of Certain Acts (Copyright Act) and other generally binding legislation.
 - b. In particular, employees and students at UJAK are required to thoroughly avoid the following conduct:
 - purchasing copies of works (including digital reproductions) for the purpose of distributing them among employees and students at UJAK or to third parties,
 - purchasing copies of already created copies of works (including digital reproductions) for the purpose of distributing them among employees and students at UJAK or third parties,
 - purchasing copies of works for personal need in violation of the act,
 - swapping a copy of any works with other persons,
 - downloading or obtaining by other means an illegal copy or reproduction of works,
 - any placement of copies of works anywhere on the computer network of UJAK, the internet, social media platforms, etc.,
 - the situation where the scope of extracts from non-original works is disproportionate to the original work in the actual original work, i.e. extracts from non-original works are not allowed to be in a greater proportion than the original work, and everyone is required to abide by the general regulations of citation of other works.

2. This Rector's directive comes into effect and validity on the day it is issued.

[ILLEGIBLE SIGNATURE]

In Prague on 17th January 2018

doc. PhDr. Luboš Chaloupka CSc.

Rector